

PIGEON POINT COMMUNITY COUNCIL MINUTES FOR 2/13/06

30 people in attendance

- 1. Joan Cappel, neighbor and photographer, died in December---her photos can still be seen on our web sight.
- 2. FLEXCAR report: Charles announced the locations of Flexcars in West Seattle. Included in our neighborhood are cars at the Youngstown Cultural Arts Center and South Seattle Community College. There is an annual fee of $35 which will be waived for people who sign up at the Youngstown Cultural Arts open house Feb. 24. You can get details on line or by calling 1-877-flexcar. Studies have shown that if you drive less than 40 hours a month it is cheaper to rent a Flexcar.
- 3. Steven, our new SouthWest Precinct “Operations Lieutenant”: things are rather quiet on this hill, crime is down so far this year, Benjamin Kinlow is still at the precinct and available to help neighborhoods, barking dogs can be written up on a city form and will be investigated, a neighbor’s truck was stolen last night when he parked it at 21st and Genessee
- 4. Randy, new director of Youngstown Cultural Center (Old Cooper School): everyone is invited to their Open House from 6-10pm on Friday, Feb. 24, upstairs houses artists and downstairs has room for community cultural arts programs including yoga classes---for classes and schedules go to their web sight at YoungstownArts.org
- 5. Emergency Preparedness: 2nd Monday of March we will have this program from 7-8pm at Cooper, lead by people from the City of Seattle
- 6. Capitol Improvements: citizens can now suggest projects for the city to take up, March 20 is the deadline for this round, go to the web sight of the Dept. of Finance for Seattle to find the link or ask Pete, possibilities are lighting for the stairs down to the Youngstown Culture Center and sidewalks north of Andover on 22 Ave
- 7. Election results for Pigeon Point Community Council: Pres.-Matt Swenson, Vice-Chair-Pete Spalding, Secretary-Sharon Price, Treasurer-Kerry Hughes.
- 8. New Activity Chairs:

Spring Clean last Sat. of April, the 29th----Pete S.
Newsletter---Raeann Patton (raeannbetzen@yahoo.com to submit articles)
Garden Tour (Sat. morning in May)---Jennifer Johnson
Sign posting for activities---Paula and Jim

9. Other business:

---Staples now takes old computers printers and cartridges for disposal (city program)

---Youngstown's Open House needs volunteers for the 24th open house

---It would be nice if we had one of our meetings at the Youngstown Cultural Center

---With so many artists now in our neighborhood it would be good to have them volunteer at Cooper School and have art events for West Seattle
